

Name: _____

Period: _____

Comparing Maps of Israel

1. List 3 important things you notice about the map.

1.

2.

3.

2. How does the map change from the previous map you examined? (Be specific)

3. How does the changes on the map impact the people living in the region?

4. What information can you infer about the conflict in this region from the map?

5. Why is religion a major factor in the changes you observe on the maps?

6. Predict how you think the people living in the region will respond to the changes.