

The American Revolution

The American Colonies 1609-1754	The French & Indian War 1754-1763	Causes of the Revolution 1763-1776	The American Revolution 1776-1783	Treaty of Paris, 1783
What was the relationship between Britain and the American colonies like before the French and Indian War?	How did the French and Indian War change the relationship between England and the American colonists?	Why did the colonists protest the new laws and taxes that were issued by Parliament after the French and Indian War?	How did the Americans beat the British in the Revolutionary War?	What was the most important provision (part) of the Treaty of Paris, 1783?
Find 3 words from the word bank that describe America at this time	Find 2 words from the word bank that describe America at this time	Find 7 words from the word bank that describe America at this time	Find 6 words from the word bank that describe America at this time	Find 2 words from the word bank that describe the effects of the treaty on America

Word Bank

1. After independence, the new border of the United States was the Mississippi River
2. America formally gained its independence from Britain
3. Britain defeated the French and gained control of the Ohio River Valley
4. Britain had huge war debts that had to be paid off because of this seven year war
5. Colonial assemblies passed laws and taxes without much interference from Britain
6. Colonists did not like the new British policy of parliamentary sovereignty
7. Colonists were mad about the Proclamation Line of 1763
8. General George Washington led the Continental Army
9. Salutary Neglect meant that the colonists could create their own colonial assemblies
10. The Boston Massacre showed colonists frustration towards the British
11. The Declaration of Independence was signed on July 4, 1776
12. The first battle of the war was at Lexington and Concord in 1775
13. The Intolerable Acts were punishment for the Boston Tea Party
14. The last battle of the war was at Yorktown
15. The only restrictions on the colonies were trade through mercantilism
16. The Sons of Liberty led protests, boycotts and committees of correspondence
17. The Stamp Act was a tax to help Britain pay off its war debts
18. The Townshend Acts were indirect taxes to help Britain pay off war debts
19. The turning point battle was at Saratoga; The French helped the colonists after this
20. Thomas Paine's Common Sense encouraged Americans to declare independence

The American Revolution

The American Colonies 1609-1754	The French & Indian War 1754-1763	Causes of the Revolution 1763-1776	The American Revolution 1776-1783	Treaty of Paris, 1783
What was the relationship between Britain and the American colonies like before the French and Indian War?	How did the French and Indian War change the relationship between England and the American colonists?	Why did the colonists protest the new laws and taxes that were issued by Parliament after the French and Indian War?	How did the Americans beat the British in the Revolutionary War?	What was the most important provision (part) of the Treaty of Paris, 1783?
Find 3 words from the word bank that describe America at this time	Find 2 words from the word bank that describe America at this time	Find 7 words from the word bank that describe America at this time	Find 6 words from the word bank that describe America at this time	Find 2 words from the word bank that describe the effects of the treaty on America
5 9 15	3 4	6 7 10 13 16 17 18 .	8 11 12 14 19 20	1 2

Word Bank

- After independence, the new border of the United States was the Mississippi River
- America formally gained its independence from Britain
- Britain defeated the French and gained control of the Ohio River Valley
- Britain had huge war debts that had to be paid off because of this seven year war
- Colonial assemblies passed laws and taxes without much interference from Britain
- Colonists did not like the new British policy of parliamentary sovereignty
- Colonists were mad about the Proclamation Line of 1763
- General George Washington led the Continental Army
- Salutary Neglect meant that the colonists could create their own colonial assemblies
- The Boston Massacre showed colonists frustration towards the British
- The Declaration of Independence was signed on July 4, 1776
- The first battle of the war was at Lexington and Concord in 1775
- The Intolerable Acts were punishment for the Boston Tea Party
- The last battle of the war was at Yorktown
- The only restrictions on the colonies were trade through mercantilism
- The Sons of Liberty led protests, boycotts and committees of correspondence
- The Stamp Act was a tax to help Britain pay off its war debts
- The Townshend Acts were indirect taxes to help Britain pay off war debts
- The turning point battle was at Saratoga; The French helped the colonists after this
- Thomas Paine's Common Sense encouraged Americans to declare independence